by seeing a Pocket Pistol, perfectly simple in its construction, an at the rame time effective. It was of a portable shape, and could be discharged six times in a few seconds. By pulling the trigger only it would cook and discharge at the same time. The objection hereto fore against the Repeating Arms was their intricate complication o machinery, which made them hable to get out of repair, and some times dangerous to use. But this Pistol is certainly the best weapo of defence we have ever seen. The Self-Protector or Contingen
